

NO WAY HOME

What begins as an ordinary journey becomes a nightmare without exit when a family's camper van is taken over by a man tied to a secret they believed was long buried. Trapped inside a moving space they cannot escape, they are driven through the night under his control, with every mile tightening the pressure on the life they have built and the lies holding it together. As fear turns to suspicion, the family begin to realise this is not a random act of violence. Their captor knows too much. He has not chosen them by chance, and he is not interested in money. He wants something far more dangerous: the truth. With no safe way out, old betrayals begin to surface, loyalties fracture, and the emotional fault lines inside the family are pushed to breaking point. Set almost entirely within the suffocating confines of the motorhome, NO WAY HOME is a claustrophobic domestic survival thriller driven by reckoning, exposure, and the devastating cost of secrets that refuse to stay buried.
