

THE MISSING BRIDE

On the eve of her wedding, a bride disappears without explanation. To her fiancé, her family, and the guests gathering for the ceremony, it looks like the ultimate act of cold feet. But the truth is far more dangerous. Hidden from the life she was about to enter, she is being held by the ex-boyfriend she believed was part of her past. As panic turns to suspicion, the disappearance begins to fracture every relationship around her. Rumour spreads. Loyalty shifts. The man she was meant to marry is forced to question everything he thought he knew, while those closest to her begin to uncover old tensions, buried lies, and secrets with the power to destroy far more than a wedding. Meanwhile, trapped in a situation that grows more unstable by the hour, she must navigate the volatile emotions of the man who took her and the consequences of a past that refuses to stay buried. The Missing Bride is a tightly wound vertical thriller driven by obsession, deception, and emotional jeopardy, where every delayed truth deepens the danger and every choice risks irreversible fallout.
